

Greatest of All Photoplays Coming.

D. W. Griffith's wonder spectacle "Way Down East," which comes to the Star Theatre for 2 days, commencing next Monday, is assured a wonderful reception from the hearty response that Manager W. G. Atkinson has evidenced from his patrons.

No theatrical attraction of the year has created the stir that has followed since the opening presentation of this production at the 14th Street Theatre in New York City early in September, 1920. It crowded that theatre twice daily from the start and was given such unstinted praise that it has been acclaimed the greatest picture of all times.

"Way Down East" as you know was a play by Lottie Blair Parker which Joseph R. Grismer helped to adapt to the stage and enjoyed unusual popularity for over a decade upon the regular stage. D. W. Griffith has taken this basic story and by his new art form which represents a combination of music, drama and motion pictures, has produced a classic. It pictures New England rural life with a fidelity and charm which cannot be approached under any other circumstances. To this absorbing tale of love and lovers Mr. Griffith has given it those touches which make his work something apart from all other forms of dramatic and pictorial entertainment. Its great punch comes after the former story would ordinarily terminate and is the greatest scene ever conceived in the theatre.

Celebration at Wadesboro.

The ex-service men are planning for a gala occasion at Wadesboro on Saturday, May 20th. The ex-service men of Richmond county are invited to attend the exercises, in uniform if possible. The following cordial invitation explains the program more fully:

Wadesboro, May 9, 1922. Commander Rockingham Post No. 118, American Legion, Rockingham, N. C.

Dear Comrade:

Wadesboro Post No. 31, American Legion, extends a cordial invitation to all members of your Post and to all ex-service men of Richmond county to be its guests on Saturday, May 20th, 1922, on the occasion of the unveiling by the Thomas Wade Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution of a very handsome memorial to the soldiers and sailors who served in the late World War, this memorial being in the form of a public drinking fountain on the public square in our city.

Colonel Hanford MacNider, National Commander of the American Legion, together with all other state officers, are to be present. Also, the president of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and other high officers of that organization are to be guests.

General A. J. Bowley, Commander of Camp Bragg, has signified his desire to be with us, if possible. He is sending over from the camp for the celebration a band of 30 instruments, an orchestra of 10 pieces, two 75-mm guns with saluting ammunition, an airplane, together with colors, standards and guidons from the various organizations at the camp. It is going to be the greatest day in the history of Anson county, and we want you men to assist us in putting it over in great style. Your presence and co-operation will insure this.

The exercises in the afternoon will begin sharply at 3 o'clock with a mammoth parade. It is hoped to have 2,000 men here in uniform. Come and wear yours. Meals will be served all ex-service men. A reception and dance will be given at the Wadesboro Country Club that night. A boxing event has been arranged; in fact, everything possible is being done looking toward showing you a good time. Please do us the honor to come and be our guests, for it is to be a red-letter day.

Fraternal yours,

H. P. Taylor, Commander, H. J. Dockery, Adjutant.

Wadesboro Post No. 31, American Legion.

FOR CLERK OF THE COURT.

Clean, honorable politics, that's my plan, and I mean it. I am not "putting out." That means that I am not buying votes or "influence" as it is now termed. To one who has had no experience in politics, it might seem that a candidate would be embarrassed in the attempt to buy votes. But he is saved any such embarrassment. Let it be whispered that a certain candidate is "putting out" and the regular grafters swarm around him. Many of them take his money and then sell out to some one else if the opportunity presents itself.

Even after announcing that I did not intend to try and buy my way into the office for which I am asking, they have been to me with most ingenious schemes of borrowing, endorsing notes, and such like. I believe that my plan of "clean, honorable politics" will appeal to you honorable citizens, and if so, please indicate as much at the polls on June 5th.

J. B. REYNOLDS

Candidate for Sheriff of Richmond County

Rockingham, N. C.

Dear Voter:

As you probably know already, I am a candidate for the nomination for the office of Sheriff in the Democratic primary to be held on June 3rd.

I write to solicit your support, which, I assure you, will be very greatly appreciated by me. You can help me in two ways: first, by giving me your individual vote; second, by speaking to your friends in my behalf.

It is not the purpose of this letter to plead any claims to this important office. Suffice it to say, however, that the public knows somewhat of my official record, having served the county for the past 8 years as deputy sheriff, both under the former Sheriff and under the present Sheriff, and, therefore, I know every detail in the work of this office; that in performing my official duty in 1917 I was shot down by a desperado, and my face was maimed and disfigured for life; that I am a man with a family and need the office; that I do not have the means to procure workers to advance my candidacy, besides I hold that an office that affects the whole people so vitally should be obtained by merit alone, in order that the law may be enforced without fear or favor.

May I ask your earnest consideration of my candidacy, with the assurance that I shall use my very best efforts to prove worthy of your support?

Respectfully yours,

J. B. Reynolds

Never before could you get so much tire worth for $10.90

AR-OWNERS who bought a 30x3 1/2 "Usco" for $10.90 last Fall have discovered this by now—

Nobody before ever got so much tire value in the neighborhood of ten dollars.

They never had to question the quality—with the makers of U. S. Royal Cords behind it.

They couldn't help admiring the price—spontaneously made to meet the new economy times.

A tire that would be high value at more than $10.90.

At $10.90 it is unapproached.
